

Welcome to my Travel blog!

Kołem Się Toczy is one of the most popular travel blogs In Poland. Blog was visited 1 million times in 2015 and reached 22.000 followers in social media. I made a lot of good cooperations (including tourist organizations), also wrote book about my travel to Kaukas and Middle East.

I founded the blog at the beginning of 2013. And from this time on I can't live without travels. I prefer traveling by planes, hitchhiking and - most of all - by byike. Actually I'm recognizable thanks to the bike. Only in 2015 I did about 10 business partnerships, most interesting are - Sony Mobile (annual partnership), PKO (the biggest Polish bank), Nat Geo Wild, T-Mobile, study tour to Georgia with other bloggers, organized by the local tourism organization, and a bike trip through German Saxony (I was invited by the German Tourism Board). To give you some statistics - as a result of my cooperation with Germany I wrote 4 articles (that generated over 25.000 UU) and had over 16.000 interactions in social media channels (Facebook, Instagram). I really enjoyed this partnership and would like to do similar works more often. Please contact me if you're interested, I'm sure we will come up with a cooperation that would satisfy both of us.

Regards,

Karol Werner
